Graduate Student Financial Literacy Seminar – Part II

CANCELLED

Finding Your Pot of Gold: How to Fund Your Graduate Education

Tuesday, October 27, 2015
10:00am - 11:30am
Meeting Room D, Student Community Center

At this workshop you will learn about connecting with faculty, administrators and staff to secure finding such as GSR and TAships. Also hear about the newest methods of identifying and applying for external fellowship monies. Dr. Josephine Moreno is the Graduate Diversity Officer in Graduate Studies for Humanities, Arts, Social Sciences and Education fields. She has extensive experience guiding students to successfully apply for the many funding opportunities available for graduate students.

Instructor: Josephine Moreno, Ph.D.
Josephine Moreno, Ph.D., is the Graduate Diversity Officer for the Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences (HASS), and Education at UC Davis. Dr. Moreno is returning to UC Davis where she earned her B.S. in Textiles and Clothing and later held a position as a postdoctoral scholar from 1995-1996. After earning her doctoral degree in Textiles and Clothing from Iowa State University, Dr. Moreno was an Assistant Professor at the University of Rhode Island. For the past 14 years, Dr. Moreno has worked closely with prospective and current graduate students from diverse populations on financial, academic and personal matters at UC Berkeley and now UC Davis.

Sponsored by