Off and Running:
Getting a Head Start on Your Graduate Career

Tuesday, September 15, 2015
Rock Hall | 11:00-11:50am

Please register at: http://tinyurl.com/OffandRunningWOW

As you start your new career as a graduate student, you may wonder how you can make the most out of this experience while preparing for your eventual career either in academia or beyond.

Join us as we explore ways to connect your graduate school experience with your future career goals, make the most of opportunities at UC Davis, and build your career while still in graduate school. You will also learn how to exercise proven strategies to enhance your marketability for future careers both within academia and beyond.

Workshop Leader: Teresa Dillinger, Ph.D., Manager, Professional Development Programs, Graduate Studies

Sponsored by the Graduate Studies Week of Orientation and Welcome &