EndNote Introduction for Biological / Agricultural / Environmental Sciences Researchers
Tuesday, November 24, 11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Library Instruction Lab, Shields Library
Please register
EndNote is a bibliographic management program which simplifies the process of generating bibliographies and reference lists. EndNote allows one to easily store, manage, and format references to any biological/agricultural/environmental science core style guide. EndNote also helps you organize and easily retrieve publication PDFs.

This introductory class will cover: creating EndNote libraries; direct export of citations from biological/agricultural article databases; importing PDFs into EndNote; adding citations to your libraries; output styles; and Cite While You Write (using EndNote with Microsoft Word). Questions? Contact Ruth Gustafson, ragustafson@lib.ucdavis.edu.

Graduate Writer's Retreat*
Tuesday, November 24, 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Student Community Center, Meeting Room E

All retreats feature a 3-hour drop-in consultation service and provide graduate students with writing assistance in an interactive and collaborative space with the help of a Graduate Writing Fellow. Individuals, writing groups, and paired writing partners are encouraged to join the retreat space to work together and with the Graduate Writing Fellow. Depending on the needs and interests of the group, the retreat may include some structured writing activities. Now providing tea and snacks. Please bring your own mug. See flyer. Sponsored by the University Writing Program, GAAAP at the SRRC, and GradPathways (Graduate Studies).

FUTURE program Certificate Track Applications – Due Friday, November 20th!

FUTURE is a new program designed to enhance the professional skills of PhD students and postdoctoral fellows engaging in health-related research to better prepare them for a wide range of career options both within and beyond academia. Our ultimate goal is to help UC Davis life science trainees acquire the knowledge, skills, and confidence needed to successfully transition into careers of their choice. UC Davis PhD students and postdoctoral scholars involved in health-related research are invited to participate. More information at future.ucdavis.edu! FUTURE is funded by the NIH Broadening Experiences in Scientific Training (BEST) initiative which aims to support the development of a broadly skilled biomedical research workforce. Sponsored by FUTURE, GradPathways (Graduate Studies) and the Internship and Career Center.

Apply to the Certificate Track by Friday, November 20 – OR – Register for the Self-Directed Track anytime, no deadline.

Hack for Food!
Enter the Apps for Ag Hackathon, compete for the best app to help better feed the world and win up to $5,000 in prize money! The Food, Ag and Health Solution Summit (Dec. 1-3, UC Davis Conference Center) includes a 32-hour app hackathon fueled by pizza and energy drinks; an idea hack tackling global challenges; a precision ag workshop for drought solutions and a full-day symposium with fast-pitch, and ag-tech presentations. The symposium day includes guest speakers:

- Rob Horsch, from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation
- William Rosenzweig, from the Culinary Institute of America Food Business School
- Angela Blackwell, from PolicyLink

The summit is also celebrating the launch of the Innovation Institute for Food and Health, a first-of-its-kind collaboration between UC Davis and Mars, Inc. The Institute has also partnered with Apps for Ag, the Mixing Bowl Hub and the SARTA AgStart program.
